

CRYONICS SUPPORT GROUPS WORLD WIDE

AUSTRALIA: The Cryonics Association of Australia offers support for Australian residents having or planning to make suspension arrangements with any of the major American Cryonics organizations, caa list@Drix.Dricom.com.au - Their Public Relations Officer is Philip Rhoades. phil@pricom.com.au They have an annual meeting alternating between Sydney and Melbourne. P.O. Box 57, Hampton Vic. 3188 Australia Phone+ 61 (3) 9589 6236 outside of Australia, and (03) 9589 6236 in Australia

BELGIUM: A new website in Dutch and French is being setup for Belgian cryonicists. <http://users.skynet.be/cryonicsbelgium/> Contact David Verbeke at david.verbeke@scarlet.be or cryonicsbelg@hotmail.com for further information.

CANADA: This is a very active group that recently participated in Toronto's first cryopreservation. President, Patrice Levin Vice President, Gary Tripp. Visit them at: <http://www.cryocdn.org/> There is a sub-group called the Toronto Local Group. Meeting dates and other conversations are held via the Yahoo group. This is a closed group. To join write:csc3@cryocdn.org

DENMARK A Danish support group is online. Contact them at: david.stodolsky@socialinformatics.org

GERMANY: There are a number of cryonicists in Germany. Their homepage is: www.biostase.de (English version in preparation.) If there are further questions, contact Prof. Klaus Sames [sames@uke.uni-hamburg.de]

IRELAND: Peter Thornbury and his wife are attempting to organize a CI group in Ireland. Peter has homes in both the north and south of Ireland, and welcomes any contacts. He may be contacted by mail at: Peter Thornbury, 50 Lough Road, Lurgan, County Armagh, North Ireland. email messages for Peter Thornbury should be sent via the UK group. (See above.)

ITALY: We are looking for contacts in Italy who are interested in forming a Cryonics Support Group. Anyone with knowledge of Italian law would also be very welcome. So far, there are two of us in the Group. Please contact us by e-mail or phone. We are based in Rome and Cassino (Frosinone,) and speak both Italian and English. Giovanni Ranzo e-mail:Giovanni.r@operamail.com
Mobile: (0039)3473259016 Aldo Fuscuardi Mobile: (0039)3474889679

JAPAN: Hikaru Midorikawa, President of the Japan Cryonics Association is attempting to reach anyone living in Japan, and interested in Cryonics. He can be reached at: mid_hikaru@yahoo.co.jp

NETHERLANDS: The Dutch Cryonics Organization is the local standby group and welcomes new enthusiasts (<http://www.cryonisme.nl>). Contact Secretary Jappie Hoekstra at +31-(0)6-53213893 or e-mail: jh@hoekstra-media.nl

NEW ZEALAND: Contact Cam Christie, easternhk@hotmail.com or go to: <http://www.nzcryonicssociety.org.nz/>

RUSSIA: KrioRus is a new Russian cryonics organization operating in Russia, CIS and Eastern Europe that exists to help arrange cryopreservation and long-term suspension locally, or with CI or Alcor. Please contact krius@mail.ru or danila.medvedev@mail.ru for additional information or visit <http://www.krius.ru> . Phone: 7-905-768-04-57 or +7 (495) 489-52-60.

SPAIN: Giulio Prisco is Secretary of the Spanish Cryonics Society. <http://www.cronica.org.sec> He lives in Madrid and he's a life member of CI and is willing to serve as a contact point for Europeans. He can be contacted at: cell phone (34)610 536144 or giulio@gmail.com

UNITED KINGDOM: There is a large, enthusiastic and active group that meets every month under the name CRYONICS EUROPE. Visit them at: www.cryonics-europe.org. Activities include discussion, CI standby team training, videos, and social events. All visitors, and new and prospective members are welcome! Please contact: Mark: Walker, C.E. Membership Manager at davros@waverider.co.uk. Tel.UK:00353 469242123, Mobile: 00353 872182779.

INTERNATIONAL

The Cryonics Society offers a free subscription newsletter FutureNews at www.CryonicsSociety.org/futurenews Phone 58 473-3321

Updated 2-20-08